

Getting ALL Students Engaged and Involved in Learning

Creative ways to use eInstruction response pads (CPS) to achieve your learning outcomes.

- Mr. Hernandez has several PowerPoint presentations created including one that looks like Jeopardy™. How can he use this with the CPS response pads to make his lessons more interactive?
- Mrs. Smith has several lessons created in her interactive whiteboard software. How can she use the CPS response pads with her existing lessons to keep every student engaged?
- Ms. Yee is a student teacher who wants to give an assessment with students working at their own pace. How can she easily accomplish this? What kind of data will be available to help pinpoint her students' needs?
- Mr. Yocum has a large bank of questions from his textbook publisher through ExamView Test Generator. His students respond well to review games. In what ways can he use these questions effectively with CPS to provide effective feedback?
