

The Quick Record feature allows you to record messages to buttons while in the Use Mode.

Creating Set to Quick Record

The Set to Quick Record Button will initiate the Quick Record Process.

- a. Double click on the button designated the Set to Quick Record Button.
- b. From the Quick Actions Action Menu select Set to Quick Record. Select OK.

1

Creating Quick Record

The Quick Record Button is the location where you record in the message.

- a. Double click on the button where you want to record the message.
- c. From the Quick Actions Action Menu select Quick Record. Select OK.

2

Using Quick Record

- a. Go into the Use Mode (CTRL-U).
- b. Click on the button you have designated as a “Set Quick Record Button.” Then, click one of the buttons that you have designated as a “Quick Record Button.”
- c. You will then be prompted with the standard “Record Sound” window allowing you to record your message.
- d. Once the message is recorded, you will be able to hear it upon pressing just the button you have designated as the “Quick Record Button.”

3

