

Rock, Scissors, Web Page

Choosing the right method of presentation and acting like you know what you're doing while you're doing it

1. Using your environment to teach – rock, stick, sand
 - a. When one person teaches two people learn
 - b. Paradigm shift – rock smashes web page, metal can't scratch glass, rock doesn't cost as much but takes longer to make, online you can find someone to grind the rock into sand and then melt it into computer chips
 - c. Computers are now part of the environment
2. White/black board – Art classes anyone?

Item #	Our Price	Units	Availability	Compare
494640	$329.99	each	In Stock	<input type="checkbox"/>

Quartet Oak Wood Frame Rolling Reversible Melamine Dry-Erase Board, 48" x 72"

- a. Are pricier than they ought to be
 - b. Use cloth diapers to erase (dry erase means the colors won't erase until they dry)(you can get other marks off by using dry erase over the top of them)
 - c. Use more than one color
 - d. write big, be bold
3. Overhead projector – don't use the laser printer(if your acetate can't handle 390°)
 - a. The technology camel gets his nose in the tent
 - b. Making light bulbs last longer
4. TV – avoid electronic babysitting
 - a. Students aren't as mesmerized as they once were
 - b. Do what the big boys do: commercial breaks
5. Computers
 - a. Individual work
 - i. Tricks and tips to monitor students
 - ii. Accountability
 - iii. One on one time
 - b. Whole class projections and projects
 - i. Science fair type powerpoints
 - ii. Web sites that everyone can get to
 - iii. Whole classroom presentations

- iv. School wide presentations
- c. Web based learning
 - i. Web CT- <http://www.webct.com/>
 - ii. Blackboard - <http://www.blackboard.com/>

JUST THE FACTS:

Plans for the merger:

»

Closing expected in late 2005 or early 2006.

»

Company will remain under the Blackboard brand.

»

Both Blackboard and WebCT product lines will remain intact and supported.

»

Over time, Blackboard will incorporate the best features and usability characteristics from the two product lines into a new standards-based product set.

»

Combined company will have more than 3,700 clients.

»

Approximately 800 employees.

»

7 offices around the US and abroad.

- iii. Understanding the ins and outs of setting up a project on blackboard.